

BidHub Features and Benefits for Subcontractors

Product Features

- Increase Business Opportunities by bidding on more projects in less time
- Create request for quotes (RFP's) faster and more efficiently through the use of custom, pre-designed templates and forms which lead to more uniform and competitive bids
- Preview thumbnails of the project prior to purchasing plans for bidding
- Receive daily alerts about projects out for bid and invitations to bid on projects
- Receive invitations to bid on multiple projects through multiple mediums (cellular, PDA, fax or email)
- Register on multiple bid lists
- Create a profile containing a summary of your qualifications and experience that is visible to project owners seeking the same
- Learn about project modifications and addenda rapidly
- Make educated decisions as to whether the project fits your skills and available resources
- Make modifications to your bids quickly and timely
- Control who can view your profile by making it private (restricted access) or public (unrestricted access)
- Track your company bidding history for all of your projects

User Benefits

- Quickly identify and respond to open (public) projects out to bid
- Enjoy a flexible, pay as you go pricing model - only pay for prints you want/need in digital downloads and/or printed plan formats
- No need to install expensive software or hardware
- Communicate faster using our application
- Completely web-based: 24/7 access anywhere
- Increase your company's market visibility by being listed in BidHub's Directory of Construction Professional
- Enhance and simplify your project owner's ability to work with you
- As a subcontractor, you can enjoy the benefits of BidHub's VIP membership program- The HubClub™ Program

learn more