

BidHub and 360 Media Join Forces to Offer Crucial Training Course for Construction Industry

Woodstock, IL. – May 25, 2006 – The company that offers its users a full suite of online solutions and services to better manage your business is back again giving you even more! BidHub has partnered with 360 Media to bring you the newest product that will keep you at the forefront of your industry. The 10-Hour Online Training Course for your Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA) Certificate is merely a click away.

This course is of immeasurable benefit and has been designed specifically for anyone and everyone in the construction industry including; construction workers, foremen, job supervisors and all other team members. The convenience and luxury of being able to complete this course online is a great opportunity in itself and the knowledge it provides is that which no construction company should allow anyone to be without. Successful completion of the course will provide participants with an official OSHA construction 10-Hour training course completion card.

BidHub's goal is to educate its users through technology and they believe passionately that knowledge is power. The benefits you received as a result of this training course far outweigh those of any other, because simply put...these benefits will save lives.

About BidHub

BidHub is an application service provider that provides a gateway and opportunity for General Contractors, Homebuilders, and Subcontractors to bid on and procure Commercial and Residential projects. Created by industry professionals, BidHub's web-based tools allow Subcontractors to receive bid invitations, submit bids on projects, and obtain digital or printed versions of architectural plans and specifications. Homebuilders and General Contractors have the ability to organize their Subcontractor databases, receive and view online bids (sorted by CSI code), and award multiple contracts. BidHub gives its users the tools to manage the entire bidding process with luxury and ease. For more information, please visit www.bidhub.com.
